

Making today's grid smarter.

Find out how a diverse team will make it happen.

What role will a diverse workforce play in delivering the energy of the future? Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) is hosting a professional networking event to start a conversation with you on this very important topic. Come and meet our engineering and diversity leaders, connect with our people, and learn more about what the future might hold for energy delivery – and for you – at PG&E.
